

Visveswarapura college of Arts and Commerce.KR road, Bangalore code of conduct Document (For Students)

- The college expects the students to maintain cleanliness in all ways. The dress, books, bags, Shoes or chappals and other belongings must be clean and tidy.
- Torn jeans, shaggy looking hairstyle, neckless T shirts and T shirts with writings are not allowed. The students coming in such dress will not be allowed into the class room and they will incur loss of attendance.
- Talking obscene words or use of abusive language in the college is viewed as serious offence may lead to enquiries and penal action.
- The students are expected to handle the books in the library and every property of the college carefully without causing any damage.
- The college expects the students to be punctual to the college and participate in all the activities of the college such as National Festivals, Cultural events, sports, extension activities and special occasional events.
- The college expects students to maintain friendly attitude with other students and show due respect to elders and teachers.
- keep the rest rooms clean and don't write on the walls.
- Don't damage the plants and avoid plastic inside the campus.
- The students must understand that the college is undercctv surveillance and behave decently.