

Visveswarapura college of Arts and Commerce.KR road, Bangalore

code of conduct Document (For Teachers)

- The Teachers of the college are the main pillars of the Institution. The students are kept in your hands in complete trust. The teachers must realise that the students depend on them for information and also building up their character and personality. You are requested to maintain yourself in a friendly dignified way observing discipline in timings, apparel and teaching.
- The teachers are expected to obey the orders of the official superiors and cooperate in performing the responsibilities assigned to them in addition to their regular duties of teaching.
- The college expects the teachers to be punctual and obtain the permission of the higher ups before going on leave. In cases of unexpected emergency situation, leave can be availed after informing the officials by informing over phone.
- The teachers are expected to keep their knowledge updated by studies, attending seminars, workshops and FDPs.
- Teachers are expected to attend to university duties and abide by the regulations.
- The teachers must speak to the parents and the general public coming to the college respectfully and attend to their needs by giving them proper guidance.
- The teachers inside and outside collegecampus are responsible for image of the college in society and the general public. Respectable language and attitude is expected of every teacher whether it be inside the premises or outside. They are adored by students and must set an example for the others
- Last but not the least, the teachers must have and show genuine interest in the progress and welfare of the students and the college.